TRIED BEFORE JURY TODAY

State Witness Testifies He Once Threatened Life of Former Wife and Children

Martin Cortuer was placed on trial today in circuit court for safety of the peace, charges being filed against him by Prosecutor Stevens, with Mrs. Vincent Gray as prosecuting witness for the state. The case was in the hands of the jury about two-thirty this afternoon and only one ballot taken, which found him guilty.

He was taken to jail and will be placed under a bond tomorrow by Judge Sparks.

Among the witnesses who testified for the state were Mrs. Vincent Gray, Cortuer's former wife, and Mrs. Minnie Stephens, wife of Ora Stephens, who live in Mauzy. Other witnesses who testified were Sheriff Jones, Mrs. Louise Kirschbaum of Shelby county, and the two children, over whom the trouble is supposed to have started. The two children, Arthur and Clara, are about ten and twelve years.

Evidence disclosed that Cortuer came from Indianapolis to talk over with his former wife, just why he wasn't allowed the custody of his children part of the time, as was granted him when they were divorced two and a half years ago. The defendant tried to show the court that he was not down here for the purpose of doing harm, but had brought the rifle along as a protection, in case it should be needed. A revolver would be a concealed weapon, and he carried the rifle, unloaded, merely for the purpose of being ready, in case he should need it, he said.

The state introduced evidence which reverted to the time of the divorce, when Mrs. Stephens testified that she had heard Cortuer remark that he would kill Mrs. Kirschbaum, his mother-in-law, then kill his former wife, the two children, and then kill himself, making it one big tragedy.

The argument started in the case about one-thirty this afternoon, and it was expected to go to the jury about an hour later.

The divorce case of Allene Smiley against Lee Smiley, which was filed on May 7 of this year, was yesterday dismissed by the plaintiff, and the costs paid. The case has been

Russell Bell Pleads Guilty to Passing Standing School Hack.

Russell Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell, of north of the city, pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon in Squire Stech's court to the charge of passing a school hack while it was discharging school children. His fine was $5.00 and costs. This is the second arrest on the same offense, a similar fine being paid the other day by Aaron Harold, another boy, it being stated that both of them were racing their machines in Circleville, and passed the school hack while loading or unloading the children. It is stated that another machine passed at the same time, and officials will make another arrest in a day or so.

They decided in addition to this to send an allied commission to the Baltic states to observe the German evacuation.

The supreme council also decided to send a commission to Budapest to take an inventory of the goods requisitioned from Hungary by the Roumanian forces.

Bulgaria was granted a ten days extension to answer the peace treaty.

ORGANIZE AND ELECT OFFICERS

Rush County Farmers Association Formed With Fred Bell of Jackson Township President.

ESTIMATED MEMBERSHIP 1200.

Each Township Organized and Represented by One Director—Constitution is Adopted

With an estimated membership of twelve hundred, the Rush County Farmers association which was formally organized yesterday and will be affiliated with the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations, has a good start and its officers and boosters expect it to be an aggressive and helpful element in the affairs of Rush county hereafter.

The report of Howard Eubank, secretary of the organization which had the formation of the association in charge, at the meeting yesterday, disclosed that there are 854 members fully paid up and at least 250 more pledged who have not yet paid their membership fee of $5.

It was also divulged that the county has not yet raised its quota of the state $200,000 guarantee fund which is being subscribed by the farmers of Indiana to support the state organization while the federation is being formed.

Officers were elected at the meetings yesterday and the constitution and by-laws, agreed upon by a committee representing each township, Wednesday afternoon, were adopted with a few minor changes.

C. F. Patterson of Tipton county, who spoke at several of the township organization meetings in this county, was unable to be present for the meetings yesterday, and the principal address was made by William Bosson of Indianapolis, treasurer of the state guarantee fund.

Fred Bell of Jackson township was elected president; Charles Spencer of Richland, vice-president; Howard Eubank of Union, secretary, and Jess Peters of Union, treasurer. Ed Chambers of this city was elected as delegate to represent the county association at the meeting of the state federation in Indianapolis November 18. D. C. Buell was selected as his alternate.

Mr. Bosson pointed out the benefits which may be expected from the township, county and state farmers associations. He showed that the farmer could never expect to obtain a hearing unless compactly organized. As an example of the way the farmers have been overlooked, though the number engaged in the production of food amount to fifty-three percent of the population, Mr. Bosson referred to the conference now being held in Washington in an attempt to solve the differences between capital and labor.

He said that farmers were supposed to be represented in the conference by these men, but that the only real farmer of the three was O. E. Bradbury of Ohio.

The constitution and by-laws follow in general outline, those adopted by the state federation. The object of the association is set forth as one "to organize the farmers of the county and promote, by education, legislation and other honorable means, the greatest agricultural progress for the good of all the people."

The officers are the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and board of directors, which consists of one director from each township having ten or more members. The officers are elected for one year, by ballot, and the directors by the townships they represent. Each township organization is the sole judge of its members and the application of a citizen for

18 ENUMERATORS FOR RUSH COUNTY

District Director of Census, Jess E. Stevens, Says Applications Must be in by Oct. 15

EACH MUST UNDERGO A TEST

Examinations Will be Held at Places Easily Accessible—Pay Not Less Than $100

There will be probably be eighteen enumerators in Rush county, according to an announcement today by Jess E. Stevens of Liberty, supervisor of the census for the sixth Indiana district, which includes the counties of Fayette, Franklin, Hancock, Henry, Rush, Shelby, Union and Wayne. Mr. Stevens stated that he will need about 182 enumerators in the district.

Applications or requests for application forms should be sent to Mr. Stevens on or before October 15. As a test of their fitness for the work, applicants will be required to fill out a sample schedule and will be duly notified of the time and place for the examination. So far as practicable, the place selected will be one which is easily accessible.

An announcement by S. L. Rogers, director of the census in the United States, which was enclosed with the announcement from Mr. Stevens regarding preparations for taking the census in the district, says the eighty thousand enumerators will be required to the next census, which begins on January 2, 1920.

The work will last about two weeks in cities and a month or more in the rural districts.

Rates of pay will vary, depending upon the locality and character of the district to be canvassed. The average pay per enumerator at the census of 1910 was about $70. At this coming census it will probably not be less than $100.

"Active, intelligent, and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age, are needed for this task," said Director Rogers, "and, in a sense, this is a call for volunteers. The importance of a complete and reliable census, especially in these critical times, when more than ever before perhaps we need complete data regarding population, conditions, tendencies and resources, can hardly be over-emphasized. The reorganization of the social and economic structure and the readjustment of international relations necessitated by the War must be based on accurate knowledge if we are to act wisely and deal justly with all classes and all interests. It is hoped, therefore, that public spirited energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned. I should be sorry to think and I do not believe, that all our patriotism was used up by the War and none left over for public service in times of peace."

Mr. Bosson pointed out the benefits which may be expected from the township, county and state farmers associations. He showed that the farmer could never expect to obtain a hearing unless compactly organized. As an example of the way the farmers have been overlooked, though the number engaged in the production of food amount to fifty-three percent of the population, Mr. Bosson referred to the conference now being held in Washington in an attempt to solve the differences between capital and labor.

PRESIDENT WILSON BETTER

Although Condition is Improved, Relapse Still is Possible.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Wilson was better today, it was authoritatively stated at the White House. There was no indication that the rest cure would be abandoned. Dr. Grayson still has sole charge of the patient and in the last few days it has not been necessary to hold daily consultations with other physicians, it was said.

Although President Wilson's condition suddenly became better during the last few days, there is still a chance for a relapse.

Germans Numbering 20,000 Gain Ground in a Battle Near Riga Correspondent Says

TWO VILLAGES ARE OCCUPIED

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 10.—A force of 20,000 Germans attacked the Letts on a ten mile front, according to a dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from its correspondent at Riga. The Letts were heavily outnumbered and were forced to yield ground under strong pressure.

The correspondent viewed the battle while stationed six miles from Riga. It was preceded by two German airplanes bombing the cavalry or the Letts, the correspondent stated.

Dispatches from Milan stated that the Germans attacked the Letts after a strong Lettish patrol attack had threatened to remove the German frontier from West Russia.

The Germans occupied two villages south of Riga.

RIOTING RENEWED IN STEEL STRIKES

RUSH BACK TO WORK AT GARY

Conditions Much Improved But Troops Are Prepared to Remain Long Time if Necessary

(By United Press.)

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 10.—One negro is dead and others were injured in a clash between negroes and foreign born steel workers at Hubbard today.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 10.—Rioting broke out in Clairton near here today when several foreigners, alleged to have expressed their intentions of returning to work, were attacked. One man was shot and wounded and three others were stabbed and badly beaten.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 10.—Rioting broke out here again today, resulting in the severe wounding of John Zecarro, a deputy sheriff and the arrests of 13 strike pickets. Twenty women pickets were also arrested, having posted themselves after the men had been ordered off the street, and put up a stiff battle with a company of militia who took them to jail.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 10.—After obtaining a first hand view of the situation at Gary, United States District Attorney Clyne left for Washington to urge congress to retain the espionage act.

While at Gary yesterday, Clyne conferred with military officials.

"In view of the conditions, I believe the espionage act should be retained," Clyne declared. He refused to say what these conditions were. Clyne will confer with Attorney General Palmer.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 10.—United States troops are prepared to remain here for a long time to prevent disorder if necessary in the steel strike district, it was indicated today.

Large quantities of supplies have arrived. The activities of the military authorities could not be revealed today because of the censorship established.

A rush back to work began last midnight when shifts changed at the American tin plate mills, and was continued until after 7 o'clock, when the changing of the shifts in the big Gary steel plant ended. In twenty asking for a change, and ten days was given by Judge Sparks for the completing of the change to Shelby county. The case is a complaint on an insurance policy.

Sanford Heaton, through his attorneys, Samuel L. Trahan of this city and Edwin Johnston of Connersville, today filed a motion asking for a new trial. Heaton was charged with assault and battery by the state of Indiana, and was fined a dollar and costs in circuit court a few weeks ago. He was fined $5 and costs in Squire Stech's court, from which he took an appeal. In all the costs and fine amounted to nearly a $100.

In the motion filed by Heaton's attorneys, he points out twelve instances wherein he was not given a fair trial, stating that the court erred in many places, and that the jury did not render a decision according to the law and evidence given in the case.

One of the twelve reasons cited was also that they were not allowed to introduce certain evidence. Judge Sparks made no disposition of the motion today.

With the case on in court today, Sheriff Jones did not arrest anyone else on the grand jury counts, and it is expected that the remaining seven indictments will be served at the first of next week.

Margaret Says
Prices Are Awful

By MARGARET ROHE

(Written for United Press.)

I care not if potatoes cost
A figure fireely high
That butter, beef and other foods
Most folks can scarcely buy
For I Must diet anyway.
With me the vital issue
Is rolling, rubbing, savoring off
Excessive fatty tissue.

But when it comes to things I wear

Believe me then I sure should care

It's got me worried, goodness knows!

The simply awful price of clothes!

New York, Oct. 10—"My dear, that

coat is perfect on you": Dearie, that

hat was just made for your eyes!:

"My dear, this suit is just your

style"—thus do the less haughty

sales ladies affectionately foist their

wears on guileless shoppers.

Little Harold, that precocious

1919 model child on an enforced

shopping tour with his maternal parent, lost not one of these endearing

apelations.

"Mother", he demanded sapiently,

"do they all dear you because ev-

erything's dear now?"

And thus you see the high cost of

clothing stands convicted out of the

months of babes.

Positively it would be tragic if it

were not so ridiculous—the price

tags dangling from this season's

coats and frocks and suits.

Do you remember in the good old

days how a fifty-dollar bill was

considered quite some outlay and

the gown or suit it purchased was

of excellent material, lines and

style? What fifty dollars will buy

to-day looks like something le chat

emportait chez-il.

Sixty-nine, seventy-five and eighty

dollars are average prices for conservative little dresses of serge, tri-

cotine, gabardine, satin, taffeta

georgette or velvetine. Anything the least out of the ordinary, exclusive

or Frenchy immediately leaps into

the hundred class and even trotteurs

of cloth, be they the least bit original and distinctive, range from $110

to $125 and $150 with easy speed of

an express elevator going up.

As for suits, without exaggera-

tion, even in shoddy materials and

cheapest grade furs, there are no

fur-trimmed suits under a hundred

dollars. When they are of peach-

bloom, duvedelyne and others of the exquisite new materials with beaver,

mole, nutria or squirrel trimmings

range from $250 to $450 with the greatest of ease and abandon.

You can pick out a sort of rough

and ready sport coat for around

$75 or $80, but let anything in evo-

ro, duvetin or cisimeretine swathe

you round your figure, and even though it isn't of the fur-bearing

species in round figures it will bring

around one hundred and fifty dollars. The beautiful beurred models

of newest rich weaves belong to the

exclusive four hundred, to judge by their price tags and with shoes soar-ing to fifteen and twenty dollars.

What's worse we can't even afford

to kick about if for fear of wearing

out our precious shoe leather.

The strange part of it all is that

never have fabrics and furs and tol-

de-lols been more lavishly and ex-

travagantly exquisite than right this

minute. The wonderful Lyons vel-

vets brocaded in metal, the metallic

tissues and brocades, the velvets,

duvedelynes and peltrys smack of

the glories of the renaissance the

same time they take a wallop at

your bank roll.

Somehow or other I can't quite

see how the league of nations can successfully put over its equality

for all nations as long as the high cost of clothing means so little to the change purse of a Hottentot and so much to the pocketbook of an American.

Gompers Must Explain

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has had the respect of the rank and file of the organization which he leads, will undoubtedly have to explain to organized labor, as well as others who have agreed with him, his connection with William Z. Foster, the avowed syndicalist, who as secretary-treasurer of the steel strikers organization committee, is receiving most of the blame for the industrial shake-up. His affiliation with the I. W. W. as late as 1911 was admitted by Mr. Gompers while testifying before the senate committee investigating the steel strike, but Gompers asserted that Foster had reformed.

According to a statement from Chicago, carried in the Christian Science Monitor, "in a letter published in Solidarity, the official organ of the I. W. W., on November 4, 1911, Will Z. Foster urged the I. W. W. to work within the American Federation of Labor to make it a revolutionary organization". Foster is reported to have said:

"I am satisfied from my observation that the only way for the I. W. W. to have the workers adopt and practice the principles of revolutionary unionism—which I take is its mission—is to give up the attempt to create a new labor movement, turn itself into a propaganda league, get into the organized labor movement, and by building up better fighting machines within the old unions than those possessed by our reactionary enemies, revolutionize those unions, even as our French syndicalist fellow workers have so successfully done with theirs".

In a pamphlet called "Syndicalism", Foster and Earl C. Ford advocate "putting the machinery on strike" by disabling it, cutting railroad wires, putting cement in switches, running locomotives into turn-table pits, putting emery dust in machinery bearings, or hiding, stealing or destroying some indispensable part, and they cite the example of the French syndicalists who look upon strike-breakers as "so much vermin to be ruthlessly exterminated". They literally hunt seabs as they would wild animals. This war on seabs is popularly known as the fox chase!"

His first big job was the organization of the stock yard and packing house laborers in Chicago and Kansas City, and his energies and capabilities were such as to command him to Gompers and other leaders, who, after a conference in Chicago something over a year ago to dis-

Sap and Salt

By BERT MOSES

Growing up is largely a matter of settling down.

Progressive men always try to learn something they don't know.

The dollar looks like it always did, but the old punch is not there.

Hez Heck says: "When a fight threatens, keep close to the door."

When you buy a car, a lot of people who didn't know you before begin to get friendly.

One reason why there is social unrest is that it costs this country six and a half billions a year to have a government.

It's plans for organizing the steel workers, appointed Foster secretary-treasurer of the organizing committee. He has made no attempt to deny that his purpose in joining the A. F. of L. was to make it a revolutionary body, yet Mr. Gompers asserts he has reformed. In the words of Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, "God save labor when it gets into the clutches of men of that type".

People Make the Mare Go

A tremulous lament has arisen from a victim of monopoly—or boshism, or plutocracy, or social seismography—any way, he's the victim of something. And his complaint is that there are soda fountains which charge 40 cents for ice cream.

There are. And there are shoe stores charging $40 for a pair of shoes. They wouldn't charge such a price for shoes if they didn't know that there are plenty of people willing to pay. As long as there is a demand for ice cream soda at 40 cents a throw, so long will we find accommodating compounders of that soothing alimentive willing to dispense it at the price—or at a dollar, if there are sufficient enthusiasts willing to trade.

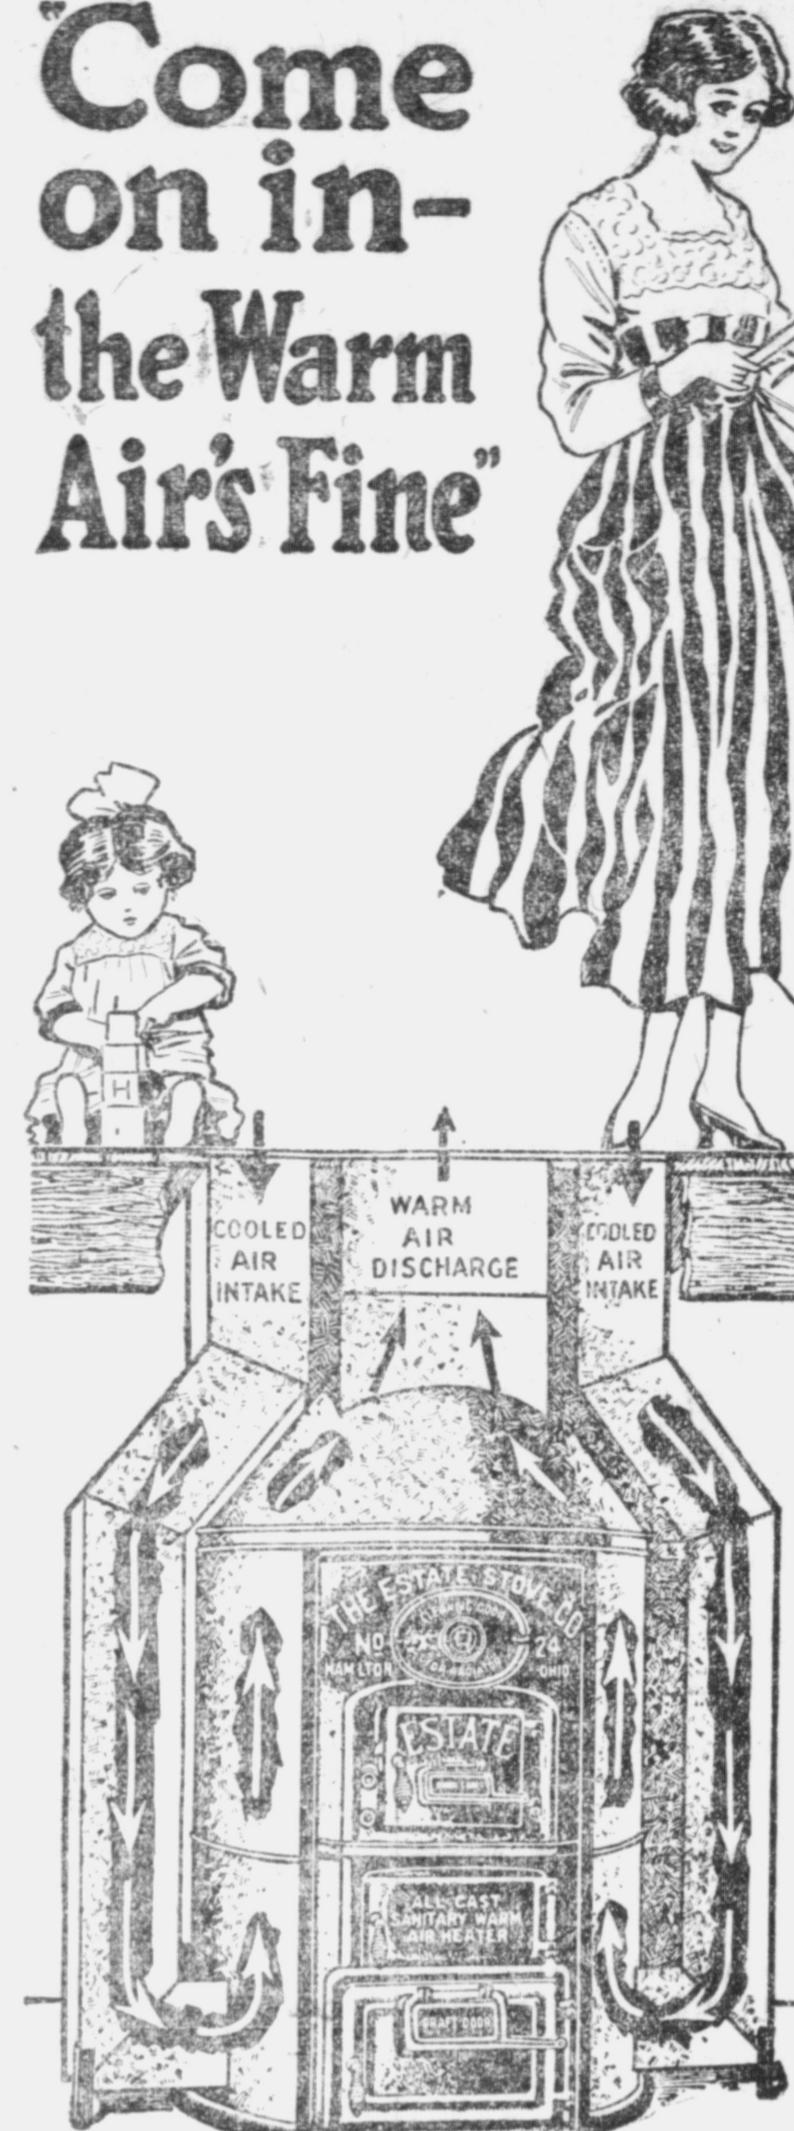

We have no kick. Theatres are always crowded; ice cream parlors are busy; cigar stores could, in most cases, handle twice as many lines, and still find a market. It will soon be more of a distinction to be a pedestrian than an automobilist; every month a few more thousands of us climb in behind windshields and join the speedway parade.

The insistent and almost universal demand for luxuries is certainly one of the causes of the cost of living. Necessities, such as wood bedsteads—would be cheaper if there were more people making them. But carpenters who used to make wooden bedsteads are needed to make pianos and talking machines; so the bedsteads become scarce—and expensive.

Luxuries, would be a short lived institutions if we all discovered that we didn't need them. You can live for a year without them, and your health will not suffer. Methuselah did without them longer than that, and he was an active old bird, even in middle age. Our habit of extravagance is not the prime cause of high prices—but it is proof that we are not disposed to do much on our own account to bring them down.

A penny supper will be given tonight at the First Baptist church in Morgan street. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Come on in—the Warm Air's Fine!

WHEN WINTER comes—and it's coming soon—will you be forced to evacuate certain rooms and sit huddled around stoves and fireplaces in the others? Will you be wearing overcoats to the dinner table, and will the mere thought of the frigid regions upstairs send a shiver down your spine?

Why not make your house a REAL HOME, and enjoy the full use of that home this winter? Why not have MORE HEAT, with LESS COAL and LESS WORK? Why not give your family the comfort to which they are entitled by installing a Warm Air Heating System?

In the Estate Single Register Warm Air Heating System, ONE REGISTER heats the whole house—upstairs and down. That means only one small hole to cut. Without fuss or muss, in a few hours' time, we can install this heating system and have it all ready for business.

Estate SINGLE REGISTER WARM AIR HEATING SYSTEM

—the Furnace that Breathes

The downward arrows show how air is drawn into the furnace (inhaled) through the intake registers. The upward arrows show how the air is carried over the hot surfaces of the furnace, thoroughly heated and also moistened by the evaporation from the water pan; how this warm air rises, expands, and is discharged (exhaled) through the warm air discharge register.

NO PIPES ARE NEEDED TO CONDUCT THE WARM AIR THROUGH THE HOUSE. As the warm air rises, cooled air sinks downward and is drawn back into the furnace.

Please note that the intake pipes in the Estate System are SEPARATE and DISTINCT from the main casing. There is no conflict between cooled air coming into the furnace and warm air going out, and fuller and freer circulation is the natural result.

If newspapers in the country would stop printing a word about these interminable strikes and lockouts and squabbles generally, there would soon be an end to the whole troublesome mess. Publicity is the life of strife.

New and Bright Yarns That Will Tickle You and Will be Relished by Your Friends When You Repeat Them.

He was a Northern man of the "Safety First" variety and when he pulled into the capital of a Southern city while the Legislature was in session he carried a bottle. The Prohibitionists were rampant. For fear of detection the Northerner sneaked into a dark baggage room of the railroad station and started to take a hoot at his bottle when a tall Senator came in. The Northern man, trembling, said "Senator, have—have a drink?" The statesman assented with a clutch at the bottle and took a long gulp, gasped, wiped his eyes and smiled: "Suh, no man evah needed that liquor like I did. Ah thank you, suh!" The Northerner, much relieved, said "Well, I feared to ask you. Thought you might be one of those anti-rum men." The Senator winked and said: "Suh, don't ask too many questions. As for liquor, it has no friends in public and no enemies in private."

Bartering Places

Back in the centuries the shops or stores you know started in something on the order of public bartering places.

What has taken their place is the modern store, where you can buy what you like just when you want it. You don't have to buy a year's supply all at once as of old. The storekeeper keeps it for you, and you buy only what you need as you need it.

The merchants and the manufacturer and advertising have brought this useful state of affairs about for your convenience. You don't even have to go to see everything and every shop to make your choice nowadays.

The advertisers relieve you of this trouble, by bringing their goods to you in the advertisements. Before the days of the development of advertising, you would have had to visit a dozen or a score of places, weigh and choose, and then not be sure you had made the best selection. Advertising has made it possible to know just what will interest you and be of value to you.

Just think what this means: You order now without worry or trouble because advertising tells you all about the things you want to buy before you buy them.

Read the advertisements and think about them with this in mind. They are there to serve you.

RIOTING RENEWED
IN STEEL STRIKERS

hours, it is officially stated, the situation in Gary will be cleared, the mills running practically with their pre-strike force.

One of the men who created a nation-wide reign of terror by throwing bombs will be in custody.
Under command of Colonel W. S.
Mapes, a large force of soldiers, secret service men, 100 members of the Loyal American League, with fifty policemen and detectives, led by Captain James McCartney, of the Gary police department, combed
the city and the suburbs rounding up wagon load after wagon load of Reds, who were taken before Colonel Mapes. The colonel remained in his office all night and grilled.

The result of the grilling was not announced but the following have been held for the immigration department of the government presumably for deportation: Sam Vaka-mak, age thirty-one, a striker, 1334
Adams street; Anton Garbas, twenty-five, a striker, Seventeenth avenue; Daniel Mariancheck, thirty-four, a striker, 65 Eleventh avenue;
Nick Sargick, twenty-seven, a striker, 764 Washington street; Steve Starawaka, thirty-one, a striker, 1947 Pennsylvania street; Alex Kirski, twenty-three, 1969 Pennsylvania street.

These men were taken in the first raid at 10 o'clock when the police soldiers and secret service men surrounded Red headquarters at 1335
Adams street. The order to open the door was not obeyed, and the door was broken in. Forty of the best known Reds in the Calumet region were in the room.

On a table was a large cross covered with red cloth. Small red flags and red emblems were about the room. A red flag four feet wide and ten feet long was suspended from the ceiling. Nick Sargick dashed at Captain Cahill, of the soldiers' force. Sargick went down like a poled ox. The crowd was hurried into the patrol wagons and taken to the police station, going in through the back way to escape the crowd that had gathered.

Colonel Mapes sorted them out.
Those he did not want he let go with a warning. The others he ordered locked up and held without bail. Among them is supposed to be a bomb thrower.

The next raid was in Tolleston, a suburb of Gary. In Tolleston lives the most dangerous men known to the police. Most of the trouble since the strike began has been in Tolleston. Returning workmen were beaten, cars carrying them to and from work were stoned. The families of the workmen were threatened and an attempt was made to burn one of the workmen's homes.

Sixty men were gathered up in Tolleston. The government did not care for any of them. They will be handled by the local authorities. All night long the street resounded with the dashing of automobiles and the marching of soldiers. Lorries loaded with armed soldiers, their steel trench helmets glinting in the street lights, rolled through by-ways and highways.

Amy Ellerman
and
The Fleming Sisters Trio
drawn from
actual photographs

Why Last Friday's audience at Main Street Christian Church was so completely mystified. Amy Ellerman and the Fleming Sisters were inside the phonograph in all excepting physical presences

At first reading, the story of the New Edison's performance last Friday night at the Main Street Christian church seems fraught with mystery.

But the explanation is simple enough.

First, get a picture of what happened. Miss Ellerman sang Cowles "Forgotten." She stopped after the first few lines, but her voice flowed on without a break. No one even noticed she had stopped—until some eyes, keener than the rest, saw her lips were still. It was only then that realization dawned. The audience found it had been listening to the New Edison.*

To every ear, the two voices, living and RE-CREATED, had been without a shade of difference. When the Fleming Sisters Trio made similar tests with their instrumental selections, the same result was obtained.

That was what so mystified the audience. They had expected the RE-CREATED art to betray its phonographic origin. It was a step too advanced for their comprehension that this instrument should be all that Miss Ellerman and the Fleming Sisters Trio are, excepting their physical presence.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

This extraordinary proof is the only means through which people learn to appreciate the true powers of the New Edison. If you are interested in music, it is indeed unfortunate that you were not present.

*The instrument used in last Friday's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada, $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

HARGROVE & MULLIN, Druggists
RUSHVILLE, INIDANA

Yet, you know this is a test which no other phonograph dares to attempt. It is proof that no one can evade or deny. The New Edison* is the only phonograph which RE-CREATES music and the soul of music.

Albert Cotton has accepted a position as teacher at South Bend, Ind.

Melvin Goddard who is attending photo school in Illinois, returned Monday.

Mrs. Clyde Whisman and daughter Dorothy are visiting relatives in Indianapolis.

Isaac Murdock who has been ill, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Craig of near Morristown visited Mr. and Mrs. Aubry Craig Sunday.

SPECULATION IN FOREIGN MONEY

Possibilities of "Cleaning up" on The Low Exchange Value of German Mark Seen

PURCHASERS BANK EMPLOYEES.

Speculating on the Mark is Considered Purely a Gamble But Usually a Good One

New York, Oct. 10.—People who want to make money—there being several of them in the vicinity of Wall Street and elsewhere in this city—are struggling to adjust patriotic scruples with possibilities of "cleaning up" on the low exchange value of the German mark.

Marks have hit the bottom in their spectacular drop, it is felt by many, who have followed the tumble in value of the German unit of exchange from twenty-five cents to three and a quarter cents. Much exchange on German banks is being bought at the low price.

Most of the purchasers are bank employees, people connected with business houses, and those who "play the game" on the outside looking in at Wall Street. Many bankers consider the mark a good buy, but cannot purchase except as individuals, since reliable and conservative banks cannot speculate on unproductive values.

Speculating on the mark is considered purely a gamble, but usually a good one, since the exchange depends largely on trade, and it is thought trade will begin gradually. It is thought by many that the mark should rise to ten cents in value inside two years, enabling trebling of money invested. However, conservatives point at the Russian ruble, in which many people invested, and which is now down to practically nothing in value. Many people who invested in marks last Spring when they were around eight cents, are raining the dross to three cents.

The system of buying most in vogue is to purchase exchange in Berlin banks. The receipt can either be kept here, and sold later, or can be sent to Berlin, where the marks can be on deposit at interest. It is said the Germans are not averse to the enormous buying of marks even at such low prices, since it will enable them to secure raw materials on the dollars they thus secure in American exchange, and will stimulate trade. Furthermore, demand for marks will send their value up.

There is a very general feeling, despite the low price of the mark, that the Germans will come back industrially very quickly, perhaps more so than the French and Italians, due to the Teutonic mind for work. The only great danger, Bolshevism, is considered pretty well under control, especially since the new German Republic has at its disposal at least a million fighting men under the name of "Noske Guards".

Some who would otherwise "take a fling" at the money market, hesitate because of anti-German feeling. The idea of abstaining from buying anything German seems to have been pretty generally forgotten, however, in the jumble of new popular problems which have arisen.

Buying of French exchange is almost as spectacular as the German. The French franc has dropped to about half of its original value, with relation to American money, and many people are acquiring money of France, as a speculation. In most cases, the French exchange is sent to Paris, to be held on deposit until the franc sees better days. The Italian lira is low, but is not a popular buy at present, perhaps due to lack of confidence in the Italian government, or else lack of familiarity with Italy on the part of the public.

MORE SUGAR EATEN SINCE PROHIBITION

Persons Accustomed to Liquor Now Turning to Candy and Other Sweets to Satisfy Appetite

MUCH SUGAR IS IMPORTED

By United Press.

Boston, Oct. 10.—The effect of prohibition on the sugar supply of the country is already apparent, according to W. K. Green, general manager of the American Sugar Refinery here. He also says that more sugar has been brought into the country this year than ever before.

Persons accustomed to liquor are now turning to candy and other sweets to satisfy the craving for alcohol, it was pointed out at a conference between sugar manufacturers and the State Commission on the Necessities of Life.

Dwight P. Thomas, head of the Revere Sugar Refining Company, declared that the consumption of sugar in the United States will be the largest in the history of the country. Last year, he said, the total consumption was 3,800,000 tons. For the first six months of 1919 the consumption reached 2,000,000 tons and probably will be more than 4,000,000.

Thomas asserted that the export trade has no effect on the domestic sugar supply.

Nash Trucks

Experienced Buyers Recognize Unusual Values of Nash Trucks

Careful investigation of the Nash truck line convinces the experienced buyer of the high value of any truck bearing the Nash name plate.

This is illustrated again by the fact that after an extensive experience with motor truck transportation of various types, the U. S. Marine Corps selected the Nash Quad as standard equipment for expeditionary service. This is the reason Nash trucks are hauling the loads of many big commercial concerns which operate fleets of trucks in many cities.

This preference for Nash trucks is based on sound business judgment. For they have behind them, assuring their continued good performance, the standing and permanency in the industry of the Nash institution with its nation-wide sales and service organizations of distributors and dealers.

CHAMPION SIGNER HAS 15,000 NAMES IN BOOK

Reginald Bray Claims to be World's "Autograph King" With 15,000 Celebrities Since 1900

INCLUDE MEN OF PROMINENCE

(By United Press)

London, (By Mail)—Reginald Bray claims to be the world's "autograph king," having secured the signatures of 15,000 celebrities since 1900, quite without influence.

His "bag" during the war includes President Wilson, signed at Paris; General Pershing, Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Haig all signed on the battlefield; Admiral Beatty, signed on the Lion during the battle of Heligoland; Admiral Jellicoe, signed on the Iron Duke; General Sir Stanley Maude, signed at Bagdad; Marshal Joffre, signed at Buckingham Palace; Verdines the French "ace" and Madame Borchkareva, commander of the Russian Women's Battalion of Death.

Recently an Australian soldier, Corporal S. B. Williams, walked into Buckingham Palace, asked for and actually secured autographs from King George, Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales; and this following many similar triumphs induced the "Digger" to claim the championship. But Bray says he has him beaten.

Anita Stewart Again Tonight

Anita Stewart as Berenice, a little Italian girl, fills in the void in the life of a New York artist in "Human Desire" which is to be shown at the Princess theatre tonight. In this feature, which is being distributed by First National, Miss Stewart has a role for which she is extraordinarily fitted temperamentally and physically.

Robert Bruce, who has won his way high in American art circles, is married to a cold and unsympathetic wife. No matter what work he does, or what new honors come to him, she is not appreciative. They have no children, and the wife wants none as she thinks they are too much bother. So, with none in his family to show the little attentions which his sensitive artist's soul craves, Brnee is unhappy.

Things reach the pass where he and his wife feel that they cannot go on living together, and the wife decides that she will take a trip to Italy so that she may think over a permanent separation. Fate dictates that this move shall bring her husband in the end happiness, and that she shall be the instrument used.

With a companion she visits the convent in which may be seen the Brampin Madonna.

The outcome of this photoplay, is really worth one's time, according to those who saw the picture last night. This picture will be repeated tonight only at the Princess.

"Nothing Short of Remarkable"

Mrs. McNabney Gains Twenty Pounds Taking Tanlac and Enjoys Life First Time in Ten Years.

"I've not only gained twenty pounds since I began taking Tanlac, but for the first time in ten years, I can sit down at the table and eat anything I want without any suffering afterwards," recently declared Mrs. Emma McNabney, of 209 South Oriental street, Indianapolis, Ind.

"Nobody knows how I suffered with my stomach," she continued. "Nearly everything I ate would sour and form gas that would bloat me up so I could hardly stand it. It seemed sometimes that my heart would almost stop beating and then, all of a sudden, it would start racing so fast I could hardly get my breath. I tell you it was awful. I had terrible pains in the pit of my stomach and through the small of my back, and I was always having to take something for constipation. I also suffered nearly all the time with sick headaches and sometimes these would last for a week or more without stopping a minute. I was as nervous as I could be and would wake up at the least little noise all during the night."

"I tried everything I could think of but didn't get any better. No medicine or treatment seemed to do me a bit of good and I just kept going down and losing weight all the time. I got to where I lived on cereals, toast, milk, and eggs. I didn't dare to eat anything heavy and I got so weak I could barely attend to my duties around the house and look after my children."

"Finally I decided to try Tanlac, after reading so many statements from people praising it, and I think it's nothing short of remarkable what this medicine has done for me. I began to improve on the first bottle and, while I know it's hard to believe, it's the honest truth that after taking 4 bottles I can eat anything without suffering a bit. Why, now I don't think anything of eating fried potatoes, meats, tomatoes and even cucumbers, things I haven't touched in years before. It all agrees with me and I've already gained twenty pounds. I don't have any gas now or pains of any sort in my stomach, or my back. I'm not constipated any more either, and those headaches have just about disappeared. I sleep sound all night long and get up in the morning full of energy. I can't begin to tell how thankful I am for Tanlac. It's certainly been a blessing to me. I'm enjoying life for the first time in ten years as a result of taking it and I am glad to have the opportunity of telling people what I think of it."

RELIEF MEASURES FOR COMING YEAR TOLD BY RED CROSS

FOLLOWING exhaustive reports from its various Commissions to European countries, the American Red Cross can define fairly well the foreign relief program for the ensuing year.

It is now clear that in the rehabilitation of nations and countries devastated by the war, the problem of vitality and the building up of man-power takes the first place in Red Cross activities. Further, it is evident that the feeding of foreign peoples, as well as general material relief is not a field which can be assumed by the Red Cross. There remains, however, the problem of sickness and disease, and particularly a diminished and weakened child population, which none of the countries of Eastern Europe is in a position to meet with its own resources, but where the American Red Cross is in a position to offer indispensable aid and service.

Recognizing these facts, the Red Cross effort in Europe during recent months has been concentrated more and more on establishing and extending through the countries of Eastern Europe, as well as Siberia, a constructive health service, looking not only toward relief in the immediate situation but also toward the establishment of permanent health service built on national foundations in each country concerned.

The medical and surgical supplies of all kinds made available for use by the Red Cross by a recent Act of Congress at once enable the Red Cross to plan this effort in medical relief on a broad, comprehensive and constructive scale. The $15,000,000 asked by the Red Cross in the Third Roll Call, November 24, will be devoted, therefore, largely to the administration of this program and making effective the distribution of materials derived from surplus Army supplies. The materials for general relief to be administered in addition to and in connection with the above will be obtained largely from supplies now in the possession of the Red Cross, or will be covered by small expenditure where purchase may prove necessary.

This program permits not only a definition in scope of the work to be carried on, but a limitation in time, presumably a period of one year. At the expiration of that time the work of the Red Cross abroad will have been largely rounded out, and activities concentrated on a program of service to Americans.

BABIES NEVER TASTED MILK

POLITICAL and economic troubles are not the only obstacles that face the new republic of Czechoslovakia. In attempting to build up a democracy, fashioned after that in the United States, one of its most serious problems is an alarming mortality rate, especially among women and children. Statistics of the American Red Cross show that in Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia deaths in 1917 exceeded births by over 20,000. Figures for 1918, not yet completed, will show a larger mortality.

"This whole condition," the Red Cross commission reports, "is due to under-nourishment of mothers and children. In its investigation the American Red Cross found that many children have never tasted milk—not even mother's milk, as the women were too weak to nurse their babies. Seven year old children have the physical proportion of five, and ten year olds have the growth of a normal seven year old."

The Red Cross has organized a system of soup kitchens throughout the country, through which it hopes to save the lives of thousands of mothers and children. The rumor of a sign with the American flag and the Red Cross over an old shack or a hastily constructed hut is enough to make women of these foreign countries walk miles for a ration of soup.

POLISH WOMEN CARRY OUT A. R. C. HEALTH PLANS

THE American Red Cross is now conducting operations in seventeen European countries. In Poland the government is taking over certain parts of the American Red Cross activities so that the Red Cross can move into new fields of relief work. The policy of the American Red Cross is to establish relief activities wherever great need exists, then to encourage local agencies to take over the established work and carry it on.

With a personnel of a hundred, the Red Cross has been making great inroads on the typhus epidemic and has enlisted the aid of 300 Polish personnel, mostly young women who have been taught the rudiments of American ideas of hygiene. After a few months, the Americans in many places were able to leave the work of sanitation to Polish units. The American Red Cross has supplied modern steam sterilizers, 30 mobile laundries, 50,000 flat irons, portable baths and many carloads of clothing, bedding, and hospital supplies.

Announcement was made this morning that all banks of the city will be closed Monday, October 13, Columbus Day.

RED CROSS NOTES

A three-day free clinic for sufferers from diseases of the eye was conducted at Brownsville, Kentucky, by the Edmonson County Red Cross chapter. Forty-three operations for trachoma, tonsils and adenoids were performed.

Dr. E. R. Hunter, national director of first aid for the American Red Cross, demonstrated the value of first aid instruction in the industrial world at the annual meeting of the National Safety Council, Cleveland, October 1-4.

The time will come shortly when courses in home hygiene and dietetics, such as the Red Cross offers, will be given in all the schools by teachers who are also trained nurses", says George E. Carrothers, assistant superintendent of the Cleveland public schools.

The American Red Cross was one of the organizations represented at the Indiana State Conference of Charities and Corrections in Ft. Wayne, October 4-7, to discuss problems of immigration, illiteracy, industry, and health.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Toupalik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief.

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

home and hospital for children. Red Cross Juniors contributed $100,000 in dimes and pennies to this cause.

More than 800,000 families or soldiers, sailors and marines took their trouble to the Red Cross during the war. Now the Red Cross is ready to maintain its Home Service sections for the help of civilian families, especially in communities where no social agencies exist.

Twenty-four thousand posters have been sent out to libraries, post-offices, and theaters in Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, calling attention to the Third Red Cross Roll

Phonograph Music at its Complete Best

THE mission of the phonograph is to reproduce music just as it was originally rendered. It is not intended that it shall create tones or harmonies of its own. It is simply a medium for picturing, as vividly as possible, the tone-colors of all voices and all instruments.

The peculiar ability of the Aeolian-Vocalion to reproduce musical tones in their natural and original colors is the key to its superiority — a superiority clearly audible to every listener who possesses a musical ear.

Style 620

We invite you to call at our display rooms and hear for yourself—hear your favorite record played—as you have never before dreamed that it could be played—Hear the New Vocalion play all makes of disc records with the same reproducer, with the same needle—AND IMPOSSIBLE—as it may seem to you—without that terrible GRINDING, SCRATCHING NOISE so commonly heard on the ordinary Phonograph. The New Vocalion with its exclusive features, the Graduola Tone Control, the Improved Automatic Stop and the Insulated lid should appeal to you, if you want Phonograph Music at its Complete Best. Don't be misled. Hear the Vocalion and have its construction explained to you thoroughly before you buy a phonograph. It will be a half hour well spent, and we will be pleased to show you, whether you are ready to buy or not.

ASK US TO EXPLAIN OUR VOCALION XMAS SAVING PLAN—We sell them on terms that you can afford to own one. For the next ten days we will accept Liberty Bonds at their face value in payment on Vocalions for Xmas delivery.

Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers*Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a oneounce bottle of Mentholized Arcine at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily snuff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

Rhineland, With American Rule, Admits it Has More Liberties Than Under German Rule

DOUGHBOYS GOOD SPENDERS

Strict Military Laws Govern the Americans as Well as Germans—Intimacy Not Allowed

By EDWIN W. HULLIGER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

With the American Army of Occupation, Coblenz, (By Mail)—Rhineland is prospering, prospering immensely, under American occupation.

The majority of the German inhabitants frankly admit they are better off both financially and politically than they would be if the American troops were not here.

Many affirm they have more liberties than under their own militaristic government. Even more declare the doughboy's presence has saved this part of Rhineland from bolshevism.

Under the patronage of the American soldiers, the German shopkeepers are making money as they have not since 1914. The Americans buy freely and pay well.

MERCHANTS in some of the little villages recently evacuated by the First Division said they were sorry to see the Yankees go. For their part, they would be glad to have them "stay right along". It meant cash in their pockets.

Relations between the soldiers and the shop people have been friendly, although reserved. Instinctively amenable to discipline, the Germans have generally respected the armistice prohibition against overcharging. They apparently realized any undue grasping would react upon them severely.

The general verdict of the doughboys is that the Germans charge them no more than their own countrymen.

Food is abundant throughout the American zone. The restaurant bills-of-fare are reminiscent of the famous German meals in the Teuton-settled districts of the United States.

The fields are loaded with a heavy harvest. Were it not for the khaki-clad M. P.'s at the cross-roads, and occasional detachments of homeward-bound troops marching down the highway, a stranger would never suspect this peaceful countryside had any connection at all with war or dream of world-conquest. Certainly, no farming region in the United States could look more prosperous.

It is also true, of course, that the Rhine is naturally one of the most fertile parts of Germany and probably suffered least of any part of the country during the war. Hence the plenty and carefree-ness in this neighborhood are not necessarily typical of Germany as a whole at all.

The village streets are lively with jolly little round-faced children; their heads shaved close.

In the cafes and restaurants, you see both Germans and Americans. But the Germans sit at their tables and the Americans at their neither paying any attention to the other. There is no mutual "clinking of glasses".

Whenever the two do come in contact, it is always noticeable that the doughboy never relaxes that new reserve he has acquired since landing in France.

Violations of the fraternizing order are punished severely by the military authorities.

If an American soldier and a German girl are found together, both are arrested and taken to the police station.

RED Cross Home Service workers in Camp Taylor (Ky.) and Camp Sherman (O.) have found their assistance required more and more as time passes by soldiers returning to civilian life who need aid in making the change.

During July 24,677 men passed through the Kentucky demobilization camp and of this number 2,502 new cases are recorded in the camp Home Service records. In addition 2,270 men applied for information, mostly in regard to insurance. This total puts Camp Taylor at the head of the list for all camps in the country in volume of work of this kind.

Camp Sherman stands third.

CORTUER DENIES HE MEANT HARM

Indianapolis Man Testifies He Brought Unloaded Rifle Here as a Precaution

TRIED BEFORE JURY TODAY

State Witness Testifies He Once Threatened Life of Former Wife and Children

Martin Cortuer was placed on trial today in circuit court for surety of the peace, charges being filed against him by Prosecutor Stevens, with Mrs. Vincent Gray as prosecuting witness for the state. The case was in the hands of the jury about two-thirty this afternoon and only one ballot taken, which found him guilty.

He was taken to jail and will be placed under a bond tomorrow by Judge Sparks.

Among the witnesses who testified for the state were Mrs. Vincent Gray, Cortuer's former wife, and Mrs. Minnie Stephens, wife of Ora Stephens, who live in Mauzy. Other witnesses who testified were Sheriff Jones, Mrs. Louise Kirschbaum of Shelby county, and the two children, over whom the trouble is supposed to have started. The two children, Arthur and Clara, are about ten and twelve years.

Evidence disclosed that Cortuer came from Indianapolis to talk over with his former wife, just why he wasn't allowed the custody of his children part of the time, as was granted him when they were divorced two and a half years ago. The defendant tried to show the court that he was not down here for the purpose of doing harm, but had brought the rifle along as a protection, in case it should be needed. A revolver would be a concealed weapon, and he carried the rifle, unloaded, merely for the purpose of being ready, in case he should need it, he said.

The state introduced evidence which reverted to the time of the divorce, when Mrs. Stephens testified that she had heard Cortuer remark that he would kill Mrs. Kirschbaum, his mother-in-law, then kill his former wife, the two children, and then kill himself, making it one big tragedy.

The argument started in the case about one-thirty this afternoon, and it was expected to go to the jury about an hour later.

The divorce case of Allene Smiley against Lee Smiley, which was filed on May 7 of this year, was yesterday dismissed by the plaintiff, and the costs paid. The case has been continued on Page Two.

They were marched through double lines of men, boys, girls and women, just going to work. The mayor proclaimed the morning a half holiday in honor of the players.

Russell Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell, of north of the city, pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon in Squire Steele's court to the charge of passing a school hack while it was discharging school children. His fine was $5.00 and costs. This is the second arrest on the same offense, a similar fine being paid the other day by Aaron Harold, another boy, it being stated that both of them were racing their machines in Circleville, and passed the school hack while loading or unloading the children. It is stated that another machine passed at the same time, and officials will make another arrest in a day or so.

Each Township Organized and Represented by One Director—Constitution is Adopted

With an estimated membership of twelve hundred, the Rush County Farmers association which was formally organized yesterday and will be affiliated with the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations, has a good start and its officers and boosters expect it to be an aggressive and helpful element in the affairs of Rush county hereafter.

The report of Howard Eubank, secretary of the organization which had the formation of the association in charge, at the meeting yesterday, disclosed that there are 854 members fully paid up and at least 250 more pledged who have not yet paid their membership fee of $5.

It was also divulged that the county has not yet raised its quota of the state $200,000 guarantee fund which is being subscribed by the farmers of Indiana to support the state organization while the federation is being formed.

Officers were elected at the meetings yesterday and the constitution and by-laws, agreed upon by a committee representing each township, Wednesday afternoon, were adopted with a few minor changes.

C. F. Patterson of Tipton county, who spoke at several of the township organization meetings in this county, was unable to be present for the meetings yesterday, and the principal address was made by William Bosson of Indianapolis, treasurer of the state guarantee fund.

Fred Bell of Jackson township was elected president; Charles Spencer of Richland, vice-president; Howard Eubank of Union, secretary, and Jess Peters of Union, treasurer. Ed Chambers of this city was elected as delegate to represent the county association at the meeting of the state federation in Indianapolis November 18. D. C. Buell was selected as his alternate.

Mr. Bosson pointed out the benefits which may be expected from the township, county and state farmers associations. He showed that the farmer could never expect to obtain a hearing unless compactly organized. As an example of the way the farmers have been overlooked, though the number engaged in the production of food amount to fifty-three percent of the population, Mr. Bosson referred to the conference now being held in Washington, in an attempt to solve the differences between capital and labor.

He said that farmers were supposed to be represented in the conference by these men, but that the only real farmer of the three was O. E. Bradfut of Ohio.

The constitution and by-laws follow in general outline, those adopted by the state federation. The object of the association is set forth as one "to organize the farmers of the county and promote, by education, legislation and other honorable means, the greatest agricultural progress for the good of all the people."

The officers are the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and board of directors, which consists of one director from each township having ten or more members. The officers are elected for one year, by ballot, and the directors by the townships they represent. Each township organization is the sole judge of its members and the application of a citizen for

District Director of Census, Jess E. Stevens, Says Applications Must be in by Oct. 15

EACH MUST UNDERGO A TEST

Examinations Will be Held at Places Easily Accessible—Pay Not Less Than $100

There will be probably be eighteen enumerators in Rush county, according to an announcement today by Jess E. Stevens of Liberty, supervisor of the census for the sixth Indiana district, which includes the counties of Fayette, Franklin, Hancock, Henry, Rush, Shelby, Union and Wayne. Mr. Stevens stated that he will need about 182 enumerators in the district.

Applications or requests for application forms should be sent to Mr. Stevens on or before October 15. As a test of their fitness for the work, applicants will be required to fill out a sample schedule and will be duly notified of the time and place for the examination. So far as practicable, the place selected will be one which is easily accessible.

An announcement by S. L. Rogers director of the census in the United States, which was enclosed with the announcement from Mr. Stevens regarding preparations for taking the census in the district, says the eighty thousand enumerators will be required to the next census, which begins January 2, 1920.

The work will last about two weeks in cities and a month or more in the rural districts.

Rates of pay will vary, depending upon the locality and character of the district to be canvassed. The average pay per enumerator at the census of 1910 was about $70. At this coming census it will probably not be less than $100.

"Active, intelligent, and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age, are needed for this task," said Director Rogers, "and, in a sense, this is a call for volunteers. The importance of a complete and reliable census, especially in these critical times when more than ever before perhaps we need complete data regarding population, conditions, tendencies and resources, can hardly be over-emphasized. The reorganization of the social and economic structure and the readjustment of international relations necessitated by the War must be based on accurate knowledge if we are to act wisely and deal justly with all classes and all interests. It is hoped, therefore, that public spirited energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned. I should be sorry to think and I do not believe, that all our patriotism was used up by the War and none left over for public service in times of peace."

He said that farmers were supposed to be represented in the conference by these men, but that the only real farmer of the three was O. E. Bradfut of Ohio.

The constitution and by-laws follow in general outline, those adopted by the state federation. PRESIDENT WILSON BETTER

Although Condition is Improved, Relapse Still is Possible.

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Wilson was better today, it was authoritatively stated at the White House. There was no indication that the rest cure would be abandoned. Dr. Grayson still has sole charge of the patient and in the last few days it has not been necessary to hold daily consultations with other physicians, it was said.

Although President Wilson's condition suddenly became better during the last few days, there is still a chance for a relapse.

ATTACK THE LETTS ON TEN-MILE FRONT

Germans Numbering 20,000 Gain Ground in a Battle Near Riga Correspondent Says

TWO VILLAGES ARE OCCUPIED

(By United Press)

London, Oct. 10.—A force of 20,000 Germans attacked the Letts on a ten mile front, according to a dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from its correspondent at Riga. The Letts were heavily outnumbered and were forced to yield ground under strong pressure.

The correspondent viewed the battle while stationed six miles from Riga. It was preceded by two German airplanes bombing the cavalry of the Letts, the correspondent stated.

Dispatches from Milan stated that the Germans attacked the Letts after a strong Lettish patrol attack had threatened to remove the German orderly from West Russia.

The Germans occupied two villages south of Riga.

RIOTING RENEWED IN STEEL STRIKES

Clashes Are Reported in Youngstown, O., Pittsburg and East Chicago Districts Today

RUSH BACK TO WORK AT GARY

Conditions Much Improved But Troops Are Prepared to Remain Long Time if Necessary

(By United Press)

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 10.—One negro is dead and others were injured in a clash between negroes and foreign born steel workers at Hubbard today.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—Rioting broke out in Clairton near here today when several foreigners, alleged to have expressed their intentions of returning to work, were attacked. One man was shot and wounded and three others were stabbed and badly beaten.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 10.—Rioting broke out here again today, resulting in the severe wounding of John Zecaro, a deputy sheriff and the arrests of 13 strike pickets. Twenty women pickets were also arrested, having posted themselves after the men had been ordered off the street, and put up a stiff battle with a company of militia who took them to jail.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 10.—After obtaining a first hand view of the situation at Gary, United States District Attorney Clyne left for Washington to urge congress to retain the espionage act.

While at Gary yesterday, Clyne conferred with military officials.

"In view of the conditions, I believe the espionage act should be retained," Clyne declared. He refused to say what these conditions were. Clyne will confer with Attorney General Palmer.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 10.—United States troops are prepared to remain here for a long time to prevent disorder if necessary in the steel strike district, it was indicated today.

Large quantities of supplies have arrived. The activities of the military authorities could not be revealed today because of the censorship established.

A rush back to work began last midnight when shifts changed at the American tin plate mills, and was continued until after 7 o'clock, when the changing of the shifts in the big Gary steel plant ended. In twenty

KING SEES THE REASON FOR FIGHTING ABILITY

Albert Says Educational System Made it Possible to Send Soldiers 3,000 Miles Away.

TO BATTLE FOR THEIR IDEALS

(By United Press)

Aboard King Albert's Train, Reno, Nevada, Oct. 10.—King Albert in an interview today has declared that he discovered the reason for the American doughboys fighting ability.

"The educational system was a thing that made possible the nation to send two million well trained natural born citizens, 3,000 miles to battle for their ideals," he declared.

The king commented on the industrial conference now in session at Washington, saying he believed it would result in the forward step toward quieting the unrest not only in the United States but in all the world.

asking for a change, and ten days was given by Judge Sparks for the completing of the change to Shelby county. The case is a complaint on an insurance policy.

Sanford Heaton, through his attorneys, Samuel L. Trabue of this city and Edwin Johnston of Connersville, today filed a motion asking for a new trial. Heaton was charged with assault and battery by the state of Indiana, and was fined a dollar and costs in circuit court a few weeks ago. He was fined $5 and costs in Squire Steele's court, from which he took an appeal. Well the costs and fine amounted to nearly a $100.

In the motion filed by Heaton's attorneys, he points out twelve instances wherein he was not given a fair trial, stating that the court erred in many places, and that the jury did not render a decision according to the law and evidence given in the case.

One of the twelve reasons cited was also that they were not allowed to introduce certain evidence. Judge Sparks made no disposition of the motion today.

With the case on in court today, Sheriff Jones did not arrest anyone else on the grand jury counts, and it is expected that the remaining seven indictments will be served the first of next week.

Prices Are Awful

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for United Press)

I care not if potatoes cost
A figure fireely high
That butter, beef and other foods
Most folks can scarcely buy
For I Must diet anyway.

With me the vital issue
Is rolling, rubbing, starving off
Excessive fatty tissue

But when it comes to things I wear
Believe me then I sure should care
It's got me worried, goodness knows
The simply awful price of clothes!

New York, Oct. 10—"My dear, that
coat is perfect on you": Dearie, that
hat was just made for your eyes":
"My dear, this suit is just your
style"—thus do the less haughty
sales ladies affectionately foist their
wears on guileless shoppers.

Little Harold, that precious
1919 model child on an enforced
shopping tour with his maternal parent, lost not one of these endearing
appellations.

"Mother", he demanded sapiently,
"do they all dear you because ev-
erything's dear now?"

And thus you see the high cost of

clothing stands convicted out of the
months of babes.

Positively it would be tragic if it
were not so ridiculous—the price
tags dangling from this season's
coats and frocks and suits.

Do you remember in the good old
days how a fifty-dollar bill was
considered quite some outlay and
the gown or suit it purchased was
of excellent material, lines and
style? What fifty dollars will buy
to-day looks like something le chat
emportait chez-il.

Sixty-nine, seventy-five and eighty
dollars are average prices for conservative little dresses of serge, tri-
cotine, gabardine, satin, taffeta
georgette or velveteen. Anything the
least out of the ordinary, exclusive
or Frenchy immediately leaps into
the hundred class and even trotteurs
of cloth, be they the least bit original
and distinctive, range from $110
to $125 and $150 with easy speed of
an express elevator going up.

As for suits, without exaggera-
tion, even in shoddy materials and
cheapest grade furs, there are no
fur-trimmed suits under a hundred dollars. When they are of peach-
bloom, duvedelyne and others of the
exquisite new materials with beaver,
mole, nutria or squirrel trimmings
range from $250 to $450 with the

greatest of ease and abandon.
You can pick out a sort of rough
and ready sport coat for around $75 or $80, but let anything in evo-
ro, duveline or cismereine swathe
you round your figure, and even though it isn't of the fur-bearing
species in round figures it will bring
around one hundred and fifty dollars. The beautiful befurried models
of newest rich weaves belong to the
exclusive four hundred, to judge by their price tags and with shoes soaring to fifteen and twenty dollars.

What's worse we can't even afford
to kick about if for fear of wearing
out our precious shoe leather.
The strange part of it all is that
never have fabrics and furs and fol-
de-lols been more lavishly and ex-
travagantly exquisite than right this
minute. The wonderful Lyons vel-
vets brocaded in metal, the metallic
tissues and brocades, the velvets, duvedelynes and peltries, smack of
the glories of the renaissance the
same time they take a wallop at
your bank roll.

Positively it would be tragic if it
were not so ridiculous—the price
tags dangling from this season's
coats and frocks and suits.

Do you remember in the good old
days how a fifty-dollar bill was
considered quite some outlay and
the gown or suit it purchased was
of excellent material, lines and
style? What fifty dollars will buy
to-day looks like something le chat
emportait chez-il.

Sixty-nine, seventy-five and eighty
dollars are average prices for conservative little dresses of serge, tri-
cotine, gabardine, satin, taffeta
georgette or velveteen. Anything the
least out of the ordinary, exclusive
or Frenchy immediately leaps into
the hundred class and even trotteurs
of cloth, be they the least bit original
and distinctive, range from $110
to $125 and $150 with easy speed of
an express elevator going up.

As for suits, without exaggera-
tion, even in shoddy materials and
cheapest grade furs, there are no
fur-trimmed suits under a hundred dollars. When they are of peach-
bloom, duvedelyne and others of the
exquisite new materials with beaver,
mole, nutria or squirrel trimmings
range from $250 to $450 with the

greatest of ease and abandon.

Gompers Must Explain

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has had the respect of the rank and file of the organization which he leads, will undoubtedly have to explain to organized labor, as well as others who have agreed with him, his connection with William Z. Foster, the avowed syndicalist, who as secretary-treasurer of the steel strikers' organization committee, is receiving most of the blame for the industrial shake-up. His affiliation with the I. W. W. as late as 1911 was admitted by Mr. Gompers while testifying before the senate committee investigating the steel strike, but Gompers asserted that Foster had reformed.

According to a statement from Chicago, carried in the Christian Science Monitor, "in a letter published in Solidarity, the official organ of the I. W. W., on November 4, 1911, Will Z. Foster urged the I. W. W. to work within the American Federation of Labor to make it a revolutionary organization". Foster is reported to have said:

"I am satisfied from my observation that the only way for the I. W. W. to have the workers adopt and practice the principles of revolutionary unionism—which I take is its mission—is to give up the attempt to create a new labor movement, turn itself into a propaganda league, get into the organized labor movement, and by building up better fighting machines within the old unions than those possessed by our reactionary enemies, revolutionize those unions, even as our French syndicalist fellow workers have so successfully done with theirs".

In a pamphlet called "Syndicalism", Foster and Earl C. Ford advocate "putting the machinery on strike" by disabling it, cutting railroad wires, putting cement in switches, running locomotives into turn-table pits, putting emery dust in machinery bearings, or hiding, stealing or destroying some indispensable part, and they cite the example of the French syndicalists who look upon strike-breakers as "so much vermin to be ruthlessly exterminated". They literally hunt scabs as they would wild animals. This war on scabs is popularly known as "the fox chase".

His first big job was the organization of the stock yard and packing house laborers in Chicago and Kansas City, and his energies and capabilities were such as to commend him to Gompers and other leaders, who, after a conference in Chicago something over a year ago to dis-

Growing up is largely a matter of settling down.

Progressive men always try to learn something they don't know.

The dollar looks like it always did, but the old punch is not there.

Hez Heck says: "When a fight threatens, keep close to the door."

When you buy a car, a lot of people who didn't know you before begin to get friendly.

One reason why there is social unrest is that it costs this country six and a half billions a year to have a government.

cuss plans for organizing the steel workers, appointed Foster secretary-treasurer of the organizing committee. He has made no attempt to deny that his purpose in joining the A. F. of L. was to make it a revolutionary body, yet Mr. Gompers asserts he has reformed. In the words of Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, "God save labor when it gets into the clutches of men of that type".

People Make the Mare Go

A tremulous lament has arisen from a victim of monopoly—or bolshevism, or plutocracy, or social seismography—any way, he's the victim of something. And his complaint is that there are soda fountains which charge 40 cents for ice cream.

There are. And there are shoe stores charging $40 for a pair of shoes. They wouldn't charge such a price for shoes if they didn't know that there are plenty of people willing to pay. As long as there is a demand for ice cream soda at 40 cents a throw, so long will we find accommodating compounders of that soothing alimentive willing to dispense it at the price—or at a dollar, if there are sufficient enthusiasts willing to trade.

We have no kick. Theatres are always crowded; ice cream parlors are busy; cigar stores could, in most cases, handle twice as many lines, and still find a market. It will soon be more of a distinction to be a pedestrian than an automobile; every month a few more thousands of us climb in behind windshields and join the speedway parade.

The insistent and almost universal demand for luxuries is certainly one of the causes of the cost of living. Necessities—such as wood bedsteads—would be cheaper if they were more plentiful—if there were more people making them. But carpenters who used to make wooden bedsteads are needed to make pianos and talking machines; so the bedsteads become scarce—and expensive.

Luxuries would be a short lived institution if we all discovered that we didn't need them. You can live for a year without them, and your health will not suffer. Methuselah did without them longer than that, and he was an active old bird, even in middle age. Our habit of extravagance is not the prime cause of high prices—but it is proof that we are not disposed to do much on our own account to bring them down.

A penny supper will be given tonight at the First Baptist church in Morgan street. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

WHEN WINTER comes
—and it's coming soon
—will you be forced to evacuate certain rooms and sit huddled around stoves and fireplaces in the others? Will you be wearing overcoats to the dinner table, and will the mere thought of the frigid regions upstairs send a shiver down your spine?
Why not make your house a REAL HOME, and enjoy the full use of that home this winter? Why not have MORE HEAT, with LESS COAL and LESS WORK? Why not give your family the comfort to which they are entitled by installing a Warm Air Heating System?

In the Estate Single Register Warm Air Heating System, ONE REGISTER heats the whole house—up-stairs and down. That means only one small hole to cut. Without fuss or muss, in a few hours' time, we can install this heating system and have it all ready for business.

Estate

SINGLE REGISTER WARM AIR HEATING SYSTEM

—the Furnace that Breathes

The downward arrows show how air is drawn into the furnace (inhaled) through the intake registers. The upward arrows show how the air is carried over the hot surfaces of the furnace, thoroughly heated and also moistened by the evaporation from the water pan; how this warm air rises, expands, and is discharged (exhaled) through the warm air discharge register. NO PIPES ARE NEEDED TO CONDUCT THE WARM AIR THROUGH THE HOUSE. As the warm air rises, cooled air sinks downward and is drawn back into the furnace.

Please note that the intake pipes in the Estate System are SEPARATE and DISTINCT from the main casing. There is no conflict between cooled air coming into the furnace and warm air going out, and fuller and freer circulation is the natural result.

Bartering Places

Back in the centuries the shops or stores you know started in something on the order of public bartering places.

What has taken their place is the modern store, where you can buy what you like just when you want it. You don't have to buy a year's supply all at once as of old. The store-keeper keeps it for you, and you buy only what you need as you need it.

The merchants and the manufacturer and advertising have brought this useful state of affairs about for your convenience. You don't even have to go to see everything and every shop to make your choice nowadays.

The advertisers relieve you of this trouble, by bringing their goods to you in the advertisements. Before the days of the development of advertising, you would have had to visit a dozen or a score of places, weigh and choose, and then not be sure you had made the best selection. Advertising has made it possible to know just what will interest you and be of value to you.

Just think what this means: You order now without worry or trouble because advertising tells you all about the things you want to buy before you buy them.

Read the advertisements and think about them with this in mind. They are there to serve you.

RIOTING RENEWED IN STEEL STRIKERS

Continued from Page One hours, it is officially stated, the situation in Gary will be cleared, the mills running practically with their pre-strike force.

One of the men who created a nation-wide reign of terror by throwing bombs will be in custody. Under command of Colonel W. S. Mapes, a large force of soldiers, secret service men, 100 members of the Loyal American League, with fifty policemen and detectives, led by Captain James McCartney, of the Gary police department, combed the city and the suburbs rounding up wagon load after wagon load of Reds, who were taken before Colonel Mapes. The colonel remained in his office all night and grilled.

The result of the grilling was not announced but the following have been held for the immigration department of the government presumably for deportation: Sam Yakanak, age thirty-one, a striker, 1334 Adams street; Anton Garbas, twenty-five, a striker, Seventeenth avenue; Daniel Marianneck, thirty-four, a striker, 65 Eleventh avenue; Nick Sargick, twenty-seven, a striker, 704 Washington street; Steve Starawaka, thirty-one, a striker, 1947 Pennsylvania street; Alex Kirschi, twenty-three, 1969 Pennsylvania street.

These men were taken in the first raid at 10 o'clock when the police, soldiers and secret service men surrounded Red headquarters at 1335 Adams street. The order to open the door was not obeyed, and the door was broken in. Forty of the best known Reds in the Calumet region were in the room.

On a table was a large cross covered with red cloth. Small red flags and red emblems were about the room. A red flag four feet wide and ten feet long was suspended from the ceiling. Nick Sargick dashed at Captain Cahill, of the soldiers' force. Sargick went down like a piled ox. The crowd was hurried into the patrol wagons and taken to the police station, going in through the back way to escape the crowd that had gathered.

Colonel Mapes sorted them out. Those he did not want he let go with a warning. The others he ordered locked up and held without bail. Among them is supposed to be a bomb thrower.

The next raid was in Tolleston, a suburb of Gary. In Tolleston lives the most dangerous men known to the police. Most of the trouble since the strike began has been in Tolleston. Returning workmen were beaten, cars carrying them to and from work were stoned. The families of the workmen were threatened and an attempt was made to burn one of the workmen's homes.

Sixty men were gathered up in Tolleston. The government did not care for any of them. They will be handled by the local authorities. All night long the street resounded with the dashing of automobiles and the marching of soldiers. Lorries loaded with armed soldiers, their steel trench helmets glinting in the street lights, rolled through by-ways and highways.

McIntyre's Shoe Store

Very Important Announcement

Just for Saturday, October 11th, a representative of a leading Furrier will conduct at this store

A Special Display and Sale of Fur Coats, Coatees, Muffs, Scarfs, Sets

We have never asked you to view a richer or more complete collection of fine furs than that which will be displayed here next Saturday. It is a specially selected showing, each garment having been chosen for the excellence of its quality, its perfection of finish, and its beauty and style. Coming from a furrier whose name has for years been closely associated with all that is high class in furs. This display will be of more than passing interest to every woman who contemplates the purchase of furs.

These Furs Are Offered at a Saving of From 10 to 25 Per Cent

This will probably be your last opportunity to effect such a substantial saving in the purchase of furs this season. Prices, in fact, will later be much higher than they are at this time.

Profit by the Counsel of an Expert Fur Man

This display will be in charge of an expert representative of the house which is sending this display to us. This expert will gladly give all wanted advice regarding the selection and care of furs. He will also take orders and measures for garments which require special attention in making and fashioning in order that the particular requirements of their purchasers may be satisfactorily carried out.

This Display and Sale is For Saturday Only

We were able to secure this display, and the services of the special representative for Saturday only, so you who wish to take advantage of the special service presented by this occasion must do so before six o'clock Saturday evening. This display will consist of more than $60,000 worth of up-to-the-minute furs, direct from the manufacturer. There is sure to be an early and spirited response to this announcement. Come during the morning hours if possible.

Amy Ellerman
and
The Fleming Sisters Trio
drawn from
actual photographs

Why Last Friday's audience at Main Street Christian Church was so completely mystified. Amy Ellerman and the Fleming Sisters were inside the phonograph in all excepting physical presences

At first reading, the story of the New Edison's performance last Friday night at the Main Street Christian church seems fraught with mystery.

But the explanation is simple enough.

First, get a picture of what happened. Miss Ellerman sang Cowles "Forgotten." She stopped after the first few lines, but her voice flowed on without a break. No one even noticed she had stopped—until some eyes, keener than the rest, saw her lips were still. It was only then that realization dawned. The audience found it had been listening to the New Edison.*

To every ear, the two voices, living and RE-CREATED, had been without a shade of difference. When the Fleming Sisters Trio made similar tests with their instrumental selections, the same result was obtained.

That was what so mystified the audience. They had expected the RE-CREATED art to betray its phonographic origin. It was a step too advanced for their comprehension that this instrument should be all that Miss Ellerman and the Fleming Sisters Trio are, excepting their physical presence.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

This extraordinary proof is the only means through which people learn to appreciate the true powers of the New Edison. If you are interested in music, it is indeed unfortunate that you were not present.

Yet, you know this is a test which no other phonograph dares to attempt. It is proof that no one can evade or deny. The New Edison* is the only phonograph which RE-CREATES music and the soul of music.

*The instrument used in last Friday's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada, $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

Not Your Money But Your Good Will

We want the good will of every car owner in this town.

We want everyone to say what lots of folks say now—"Willard? That's where you get a square deal and value for every dollar."

We'd rather have your good will than an extra dollar or two on a repair job.

We'd rather sell you a battery that will give longer and better service than to make a living by repairing poor batteries.

Of course good repair work and good batteries cost more, but we believe they make friends and buy good will.

Let's get together.

SPECULATION IN FOREIGN MONEY

Possibilities of "Cleaning up" on The Low Exchange Value of German Mark Seen

PURCHASERS BANK EMPLOYEES.

Speculating on the Mark is Considered Purely a Gamble But Usually a Good One

New York, Oct. 10—People who want to make money—there being several of them in the vicinity of Wall Street and elsewhere in this city—are struggling to adjust patriotic scruples with possibilities of "cleaning up" on the low exchange value of the German mark.

Marks have hit the bottom in their spectacular drop, it is felt by many, who have followed the tumble in value of the German unit of exchange from twenty-five cents to three and a quarter cents. Much exchange on German banks is being bought at the low price.

Most of the purchasers are bank employees, people connected with business houses, and those who "play the game" on the outside looking in at Wall Street. Many bankers consider the mark a good buy, but cannot purchase except as individuals, since reliable and conservative banks cannot speculate on unproductive values.

Speculating on the mark is considered purely a gamble, but usually a good one, since the exchange depends largely on trade, and it is thought trade will begin gradually. It is thought by many that the mark should rise to ten cents in value inside two years, enabling trebling of money invested. However, conservatives point at the Russian ruble, in which many people invested, and which is now down to practically nothing in value. Many people who invested in marks last Spring when they were around eight cents are racing the drift to three cents.

The system of buying most in vogue is to purchase exchange in Berlin banks. The receipt can either be kept here, and sold later, or can be sent to Berlin, where the marks can be on deposit at interest. It is said the Germans are not averse to the enormous buying of marks even at such low prices, since it will enable them to secure raw materials on the dollars they thus secure in American exchange, and will stimulate trade. Furthermore, demand for marks will send their value up.

There is a very general feeling, despite the low price of the mark, that the Germans will come back industrially very quickly, perhaps more so than the French and Italians, due to the Teutonic instinct for work. The only great danger, Bolshevism, is considered pretty well under control, especially since the new German Republic has at its disposal at least a million fighting men under the name of "Noske Guards".

Some who would otherwise "take a swing" at the money market, hesitate because of anti-German feeling. The idea of abstaining from buying anything German seems to have been pretty generally forgotten, however, in the jumble of new popular problems which have arisen.

Buying of French exchange is almost as spectacular as the German.

The French franc has dropped to about half of its original value, with relation to American money, and many people are acquiring money of France, as a speculation. In most cases, the French exchange is sent to Paris, to be held on deposit until the franc sees better days. The Italian lira is low, but is not a popular buy at present, perhaps due to lack of confidence in the Italian government, or else lack of familiarity with Italy on the part of the public.

MORE SUGAR EATEN SINCE PROHIBITION

Persons Accustomed to Liquor Now Turning to Candy and Other Sweets to Satisfy Appetite

MUCH SUGAR IS IMPORTED

Boston, Oct. 10.—The effect of prohibition on the sugar supply of the country is already apparent, according to W. K. Green, general manager of the American Sugar Refinery here. He also says that more sugar has been brought into the country this year than ever before.

Persons accustomed to liquor are now turning to candy and other sweets to satisfy the craving for alcohol, it was pointed out at a conference between sugar manufacturers and the State Commission on the Necessities of Life.

Dwight P. Thomas, head of the Revere Sugar Refining Company, declared that the consumption of sugar in the United States will be the largest in the history of the country. Last year, he said, the total consumption was 3,800,000 tons. For the first six months of 1919 the consumption reached 2,000,000 tons and probably will be more than 4,000,000.

Thomas asserted that the export trade has no effect on the domestic sugar supply.

Nash Trucks

Experienced Buyers Recognize Unusual Values of Nash Trucks

Careful investigation of the Nash truck line convinces the experienced buyer of the high value of any truck bearing the Nash name plate.

This is illustrated again by the fact that after an extensive experience with motor truck transportation of various types, the U. S. Marine Corps selected the Nash Quad as standard equipment for expeditionary service. This is the reason Nash trucks are hauling the loads of many big commercial concerns which operate fleets of trucks in many cities.

This preference for Nash trucks is based on sound business judgment. For they have behind them, assuring their continued good performance, the standing and permanency in the industry of the Nash institution with its nation-wide sales and service organizations of distributors and dealers.

Reginald Bray Claims to be World's "Autograph King" With 15,000 Celebrities Since 1900

INCLUDE MEN OF PROMINENCE

(By United Press.)

London (By Mail)—Reginald Bray claims to be the world's "autograph king," having secured the signatures of 15,000 celebrities since 1900, quite without influence.

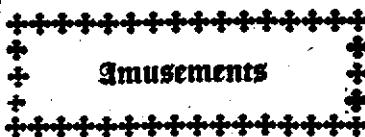

His "bag" during the war includes President Wilson, signed at Paris; General Pershing, Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Haig, all signed on the battlefield; Admiral Beatty, signed on the Lion during the battle of Heligoland; Admiral Jellicoe, signed on the Iron Duke; General Sir Stanley Maude, signed at Bagdad; Marshal Joffre, signed at Buckingham Palace; Vedrines the French "ace" and Madame Botchkareva, commander of the Russian Women's Battalion of Death.

Recently an Australian soldier, Corporal S. B. Williams, walked into Buckingham Palace, asked for and actually secured autographs from King George, Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales; and this following many similar triumphs induced the "Digger" to claim the championship. But Bray says he has him beaten.

Amusements*Police Picture at Mystic

The Reds!

In these days the term means the misguided maniacs who seek to sear humanity with the incendiary torch of anarchism.

The Reds!

A decade ago the term meant the rank and file of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, the greatest police organization in the world.

In the trackless white immensity of the snow country the scarlet-coated riders of the King's "long-arm" rode after offenders against the peace and dignity of his majesty's colonial government.

Sometimes they returned; more frequently they didn't.

There was only one code in the Royal Northwest Mounted in those days; it was:

"Get your man!" The motto of the organization was:

"It can't be done—but we'll do it."

The hazardous work of the old Northwest Mounted is the basis of "The Man in the Moonlight," a Universal photodrama starring Monroe Salisbury, which comes to the Mystic Theatre on Friday.

Tomorrow the five-reel feature comedy-drama, "Come Again Smith" with J. W. Kerrigan in the leading part, and a Harold Lloyd comedy, "Next Aisle Over" are the attractions.

Anita Stewart Again Tonight

Anita Stewart as Berenice, a little Italian girl, fills in the void in the life of a New York artist in "Human Desire" which is to be shown at the Princess theatre tonight. In this feature, which is being distributed by First National, Miss Stewart has a role for which she is extraordinarily fitted temperamentally and physically.

Robert Bruce, who has won his way high in American art circles, is married to a cold and unsympathetic

wife. No matter what work he does, or what new honors come to him, she is not appreciative. They have no children, and the wife wants none as she thinks they are too much bother. So, with none in his family to show the little attentions which his sensitive artist's soul craves, Bruce is unhappy.

Things reach the pass where he and his wife feel that they cannot go on living together, and the wife decides that she will take a trip to Italy so that she may think over a permanent separation. Fate dictates that this move shall bring her husband in the end happiness, and that she shall be the instrument used.

With a companion she visits the convent in which may be seen the Frampini Madonna.

The outcome of this photoplay, is really worth one's time, according to those who saw the picture last night. This picture will be repeated tonight only at the Princess.

Cumming, chairman, representing the United States Public Health Service; Dr. Aldo Castellani of Tropical Medicine; Dr. George S. "Nothing Short of Remarkable"

Mrs. McNabney Gains Twenty Pounds Taking Tanlac and Enjoys Life First Time in Ten Years.

"I've not only gained twenty pounds since I began taking Tanlac, but for the first time in ten years, I can sit down at the table and eat anything I want without any suffering afterwards," recently declared Mrs. Emma McNabney, of 209 South Oriental street, Indianapolis, Ind.

"Nobody knows how I suffered with my stomach," she continued. "Nearly everything I ate would sour and form gas that would bloat me up so I could hardly stand it. It seemed sometimes that my heart would almost stop beating and then, all of a sudden, it would start racing so fast I could hardly get my breath. I tell you it was awful. I had terrible pains in the pit of my stomach and through the small of my back, and I was always having to take something for constipation. I also suffered nearly all the time with sick headaches and sometimes these would last for a week or more without stopping a minute. I was as nervous as I could be and would wake up at the least little noise all during the night."

"I tried everything I could think of but didn't get any better. No medicine or treatment seemed to do me a bit of good and I just kept going down and losing weight all the time. I got to where I lived on cereals, toast, milk, and eggs. I didn't dare to eat anything heavy and I got so weak I could barely attend to my duties around the house and look after my children."

"Finally I decided to try Tanlac, after reading so many statements from people praising it, and I think it's nothing short of remarkable what this medicine has done for me. I began to improve on the first bottle and, while I know it's hard to believe, it's the honest truth that after taking 4 bottles I can eat anything without suffering a bit. Why, now I don't think anything of eating fried potatoes, meats, tomatoes and even cucumbers, things I haven't touched in years before. It all agrees with me and I've already gained twenty pounds. I don't have any gas now or pains of any sort in my stomach, or my back. I'm not constipated any more either, and those headaches have just about disappeared. I sleep sound all night long and get up in the morning full of energy. I can't begin to tell how thankful I am for Tanlac. It's certainly been a blessing to me. I'm enjoying life for the first time in ten years as a result of taking it and I am glad to have the opportunity of telling people what I think of it."

RELIEF MEASURES FOR COMING YEAR TOLD BY RED CROSS

FOLLOWING exhaustive reports from its various Commissions to European countries, the American Red Cross can define fairly well the foreign relief program for the ensuing year.

It is now clear that in the rehabilitation of nations and countries devastated by the war, the problem of vitality and the building up of man-power takes the first place in Red Cross activities. Further, it is evident that the feeding of foreign peoples, as well as general material relief is not a field which can be assumed by the Red Cross. There remains, however, the problem of sickness and disease, and particularly a diminished and weakened child population, which none of the countries of Eastern Europe is in a position to meet with its own resources, but where the American Red Cross is in a position to offer indispensable aid and service.

Recognizing these facts, the Red Cross effort in Europe during recent months has been concentrated more and more on establishing and extending through the countries of Eastern Europe, as well as Siberia, a constructive health service, looking not only toward relief in the immediate situation but also toward the establishment of permanent health service built on national foundations in each country concerned.

The medical and surgical supplies of all kinds made available for use by the Red Cross by a recent Act of Congress at once enable the Red Cross to plan this effort in medical relief on broad, comprehensive and constructive scale. The $15,000,000 asked by the Red Cross in the Third Roll Call, November 2-11, will be devoted, therefore, largely to the administration of this program and making effective the distribution of materials derived from surplus Army supplies. The materials for general relief to be administered in addition to and in connection with the above will be obtained largely from supplies now in the possession of the Red Cross, or will be covered by small expenditure where purchase may prove necessary.

This program permits not only a definition in scope of the work to be carried on, but a limitation in time, presumably a period of one year. At the expiration of that time the work of the Red Cross abroad will have been largely rounded out, and activities concentrated on a program of service to Americans.

BABIES NEVER TASTED MILK

POLITICAL and economic troubles are not the only obstacles that face the new republic of Czechoslovakia. In attempting to build up a democracy, fashioned after that in the United States, one of its most serious problems is an alarming mortality rate, especially among women and children.

Statistics of the American Red Cross show that in Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia deaths in 1917 exceeded births by over 20,000. Figures for 1918, not yet completed, will show a larger mortality.

"This whole condition," the Red Cross commission reports, "is due to under-nourishment of mothers and children. In its investigation the American Red Cross found that many children have never tasted milk—not even mother's milk, as the women were too weak to nurse their babies. Seven year old children have the physical proportion of five, and ten year olds have the growth of a normal seven year old."

The Red Cross has organized a system of soup kitchens throughout the country, through which it hopes to save the lives of thousands of mothers and children. The rumor of a sign with the American flag and the Red Cross over an old shack or a hastily constructed hut is enough to make women of these foreign countries walk miles for a ration of soup.

POLISH WOMEN CARRY OUT A. R. C. HEALTH PLANS

THE American Red Cross is now conducting operations in seventeen European countries. In Poland the government is taking over certain parts of the American Red Cross activities so that the Red Cross can move into new fields of relief work. The policy of the American Red Cross is to establish relief activities wherever great need exists, then to encourage local agencies to take over the established work and carry it on.

With personnel of a hundred, the Red Cross has been making great inroads on the typhus epidemic and has enlisted the aid of 300 Polish personnel, mostly young women who have been taught the rudiments of American ideas of hygiene. After a few months, the Americans in many places were able to leave the work of sanitation to Polish units. The American Red Cross has supplied modern steam sterilizers, 30 mobile laundries, 50,000 flat irons, portable baths and many caravans of clothing, bedding, and hospital supplies.

BANKS WILL CLOSE

Announcement was made this morning that all banks of the city will be closed Monday, October 13, Common Day.

RED CROSS NOTES

A three-day free clinic for sufferers from diseases of the eye was conducted at Brownsville, Kentucky, by the Edmonson County Red Cross chapter. Forty-three operations for trachoma, tonsils and adenoids were performed.

Dr. E. R. Hunter, national director of first aid for the American Red Cross, demonstrated the value of first aid instruction in the industrial world at the annual meeting of the National Safety Council, Cleveland, October 1-4.

"The time will come shortly when courses in home hygiene and dietetics, such as the Red Cross offers, will be given in all the schools by teachers who are also trained nurses," says George E. Carrothers, assistant superintendent of the Cleveland public schools.

The American Red Cross was one of the organizations represented at the Indiana State Conference of Charities and Corrections in Ft. Wayne, October 4-7, to discuss problems of immigration, illiteracy, industry, and health.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Toupanik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief.

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

Phonograph Music at its Complete Best

THE mission of the phonograph is to reproduce music just as it was originally rendered. It is not intended that it shall create tones or harmonies of its own. It is simply a medium for picturing, as vividly as possible, the tone-colors of all voices and all instruments.

The peculiar ability of the Aeolian-Vocalion to reproduce musical tones in their natural and original colors is the key to its superiority — a superiority clearly audible to every listener who possesses a musical ear.

We invite you to call at our display rooms and hear for yourself—hear your favorite record played—as you have never before dreamed that it could be played—Hear the New Vocalion play all makes of disc records with the same reproducer, with the same needle AND IMPOSSIBLE—as it may seem to you—without that terrible GRINDING, SCRATCHING NOISE so commonly heard on the ordinary Phonograph. The New Vocalion with its exclusive features, the Graduola Tone Control, the Improved Automatic Stop and the Insulated lid should appeal to you, if you want Phonograph Music at its Complete Best. Don't be misled. Hear the Vocalion and have its construction explained to you thoroughly before you buy a phonograph. It will be a half hour well spent, and we will be pleased to show you, whether you are ready to buy or not.

PROSPERS UNDER U. S. OCCUPATION

Rhineland, With American Rule, Admits it Has More Liberties Than Under German Rule

DOUGHBOYS GOOD SPENDERS

Strict Military Laws Govern the Americans as Well as Germans—Intimacy Not Allowed

By EDWIN W. HULLIGER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)

With the American Army of Occupation, Coblenz, (By Mail)—Rhineland is prospering, prospering immensely, under American occupation.

The majority of the German inhabitants frankly admit they are better off both financially and politically than they would be if the American troops were not here.

Many affirm they have more liberties than under their own militaristic government. Even more declare the doughboy's presence has saved this part of Rhineland from bolshevism.

Under the patronage of the American soldiers, the German shopkeepers are making money as they have not since 1914. The Americans buy freely and pay well.

MERCHANTS in some of the little villages recently evacuated by the First Division said they were sorry to see the Yankees go. For their part, they would be glad to have them "stay right along". It meant cash in their pockets.

Relations between the soldiers and the shop people have been friendly, although reserved. Instinctively amenable to discipline, the Germans have generally respected the armistice prohibition against overcharging. They apparently realized any undue grasping would react upon them severely.

The general verdict of the doughboys is that the Germans charge them no more than their own countrymen.

Food is abundant throughout the American zone. The restaurant bills of fare are reminiscent of the famous German meals in the Tenton-settled districts of the United States.

The fields are loaded with a heavy harvest. Were it not for the khaki-clad M. P.'s at the cross-roads, and occasional detachments of homeward-bound troops marching down the highway, a stranger would never suspect this peaceful countryside had any connection at all with war or dream of world-conquest. Certainly, no farming region in the United States could look more prosperous.

It is also true, of course, that the Rhine is naturally one of the most fertile parts of Germany and probably suffered least of any part of the country during the war. Hence the plenty and carefree-ness in this neighborhood are not necessarily typical of Germany as a whole at all.

The village streets are lively with jolly little round-faced children; their heads shaved close.

In the cafes and restaurants, you see both Germans and Americans. But the Germans sit at their tables and the Americans at theirs, neither paying any attention to the other. There is no mutual "clinking of glasses".

Whenever the two do come in contact, it is always noticeable that the doughboy never relaxes that new reserve he has acquired since landing in France.

Violations of the fraternizing order are punished severely by the military authorities.

If an American soldier and a German girl are found together, both are arrested and taken to the police station.

CAMP WORKERS AID MEN RETURNING TO CIVILIAN LIFE

RED Cross Home Service workers in Camp Taylor (Ky.) and Camp Sherman (O.) have found their assistance required more and more as time passes by soldiers returning to civilian life who need aid in making the change.

During July 24,677 men passed through the Kentucky demobilization camp and of this number 2,562 new cases are recorded in the camp Home Service records. In addition, 2,270 men applied for information, mostly in regard to insurance. This total puts Camp Taylor at the head of the list for all camps in the country in volume of work of this kind.

Camp Sherman stands third.
